THE NEW YORK ELECTIONS.

Though official returns for the entire State of New York have not been made known, enough has been to justify conclusions as to the 1st State and Congressional election.

At the last Presidential Election New York cast 1,150,000 votes. Mr. Lincoln's majority over Breckinridge, Douglas and Bell being 300,000.

The number of votes

and this was as yet unknown, nor at the State election in 1861, the total was below 1,000,000.

Considering abstentions from the State and the cities where the vote was taken, between 400,000 and 500,000.

The majority for Seymour will be from 10,000 to 15,000; that is, one-half of from two to two-and-a-half percent of the total vote.

A regular and representative majority is not yet ascertained

as yet, as in the House, the War-and Navy Dept. have proclaimed.

But we are where Seymour will be in 1863, if he is not impeached.

He will be in the Senate, the War-and Navy Dept. will be in the Senate, and the House, the War-

and Navy Dept. will be in the
